

SENINEL SPECIALS.

Seymour's Budget of News.
Special to the Sentinel.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Feb. 3.—John Howard, who was brought to this city on Saturday from Ohio, on a requisition from Governor Gray, for obtaining $54.70 from Mr. Hamp Bruning on false pretenses, was arraigned in the Circuit Court at Brownstown yesterday, when he entered a plea of guilty and Judge Collins sentenced him to two years in the State prison and a fine of $1. Howard was married to a respectable young lady at Cincinnati only a few days ago and he obtained this money to defray his wedding expenses. This is the third addition to the penitentiary from this county this term of court.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. and Reading Room vacated their splendid two-story building yesterday and took new quarters on South Chestnut street, to give way to the Daily and Weekly Business Company, who have leased the premises for three years with the privilege of purchasing the property, which they will likely do. They took possession today.

Horace Thomas and David Winslow, two hard fought rivals in Washington, came up to this city last evening on an O. & M. train. They were very drunk and boisterous, drew their knives and threatened to cut and slash whoever came in their way. Sheriff H. A. Burrell being on the train arrested them and handed them over to the city authorities on arriving here. They were tried before Justice A. J. Krawel last night and the former was fined $10.85 and the latter $17.35. Failing to pay or stay the same they were sent to the County Jail.

The ground hog revealed in beautiful sunshine yesterday, and according to the old adage, retires to his hole to enjoy forty days more of winter.

Columbus Items.
Special to the Sentinel.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Feb. 3.—The Bartholomew County Agricultural and Industrial Association met here yesterday for the selection of officers to serve the ensuing year. The following were selected: Henry Lambert, President; D. W. Heagy, Vice President; E. A. Jones, Secretary; Dr. W. O. Hogan, Treasurer; S. E. Quick, General Superintendent; John H. Redenbaugh, Marshal; J. S. Davis, T. F. McCallie, Henry Doup, Executive Committee; Mrs. S. H. Quick, Mrs. Henry Doup, Mrs. John McClelland, Mrs. N. C. Spurgin, Mrs. S. M. Quick, Ladies' Committee.

The house of Martin Squire, ten miles north of this place, was entered on Saturday and a fine suit of clothes and other articles taken.

A stranger who claimed Vevay, Ind., as his home came up from Greensburg yesterday morning. He took in the saloons and showed considerable money. He was enticed out of town after dark under a pretense of being shown a good place to sleep and knocked down and robbed of $400 and $50. He was badly cut about the head and face.

The Circuit Court is in session on a light criminal docket. Amos Burns is on the bench in place of Judge N. S. Carr, who has gone South for the benefit of his health.

Determined to Commit Suicide.
Special to the Sentinel.

BUNKER HILL, Ind., Feb. 3.—Albert Kline, a young man living near this place, attempted suicide this morning by cutting his throat with a razor because a young lady to whom he had been paying his respects refused to receive his attentions any longer. The wound, though very frightful looking, is not necessarily dangerous, but he is determined it shall prove fatal, as he tore it open as soon as it was dressed by the physician. He says that he will kill himself at the first opportunity.

On Trial for Infanticide.
Special to the Sentinel.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Feb. 3.—Florence White, a young woman about twenty-six years of age, is on trial here for infanticide. She is indicted on a charge of having poisoned her infant with laudanum, shortly after her birth, last Oct. her. She was assisted by a woman named Mrs. Small, who is indicted on the same charge. After poisoning the infant she took it to her home in Brookston, and there buried it in a smoke-house.

The Fire Fiend.
Special to the Sentinel.

GREENFIELD, Ind., Feb. 3.—At 12:15 this morning a fire burned the Burk saloon and damaged Judge Gooding's residence. Loss on the saloon, the building owned by J. J. Hauck, $500; insured in the Western of Toronto for $500. On stock of George W. Lacey the loss is $800; insured in German Fire of Pittsburgh, for $700. Mr. Gooding's loss is $200; insured with an Indianapolis loss co.

Sentenced by Hanging.
Special to the Sentinel.

GREENFIELD, Ind., Feb. 3.—The body of Thomas Shipley was found hanging suspended by a rope in the barn of his employer, William Collins, near Milner's corner, this morning. He left the house last night without any comment, and the family thought he was at a neighbor's. The corner found he had committed suicide, as above stated.

Sentenced for Two Years.
Special to the Sentinel.

MADISON, Ind., Feb. 3.—Last Saturday night John, alias "Snooty" Finnigan, was on a drunk and came in contact with Merchant Policeman Leonard Maurer, who arrested him, but not until the policeman received several gashes in the hand. Yesterday he pleaded guilty to assault and battery with intent to commit murder, and was sent to the penitentiary for two years.

Views of Prominent Irishmen.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 3.—A number of prominent Irishmen of this city have been interviewed by an Associated Press representative in relation to the shooting of Rosa James Mooney, ex-President of the Irish National League, said that he did not agree with Rosa, whom he styled an apostle of assassination. He did not believe Rosa was in any way connected with the recent dynamite explosions in England. Neither did he think any one in this country had a hand in the affair. Rosa had no following of any account in this country. Rosa may have good reasons for his bitter hatred to England, but the Irish leaders have no sympathy with his wild and impracticable schemes. Mooney believed the outrages in England were planned in that country by persons in the employ of the Communists, or similar organizations, and possibly by the Irish consular, who want the crimes not renewed. Father Cronin, editor of the Catholic Union and Times, said he considered Rosa had no intensity at the hands of England and was to a certain extent unaccountable for his acts and words. His wrongs had affected his mind. He did not think Rosa responsible for the outrages in London or that the dynamites were Irishmen. They were to his mind the result of British tyranny.

Shot in a Duel.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., Feb. 3.—At 1 o'clock this morning John L. Jack shot Carter B. Page in the face, the ball lodging in the neck, inflicting a serious and possibly a mortal wound. Jack thought himself slighted by Page in the matter of social courtesy and challenged him. Page went to arm himself, and on his return found Jack waiting at the door of the restaurant where the quarrel began. Page gave the word "fire," and nine shots followed each other in quick succession. Jack's fifth shot was the only one that took effect, although Page's pistol was discharged four times. Jack is held for trial. Both young men are well known. Page has a wide circle of connections in this and other states.

May He Never Return.

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—John L. Sullivan says, in response to Ryan's challenge to fight: "I have no response to make to Mr. Ryan, as I have retired from the ring and boxing exhibitions till my return from England."

Cleveland Goes to New York.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 3.—President-elect Cleveland goes to New York to-morrow afternoon, and will spend the remainder of the week there.

THE STATE NORMAL.

The Senate and House Committees on Education Visit the Institution

And are Royally Entertained by the Citizens of Terre Haute—

The Banquet.

The House and Senate Committees on Education visited the State Normal School at Terre Haute yesterday, and were tendered a banquet and reception by the citizens of that enterprising place. A large number of members of the General Assembly who are not on the committee accompanied the same, and the trip was made over the Vandalia, in a special car provided by President McKee.

The following members of the General Assembly and a representative of the Sentinel constituted the party: Senators McGee, Hilligass, Campbell, Foulke, Faulkner, Hoover, Bailey, Scholls, Brown and Willard; Representatives Franklin, E. S. Booe, McHenry, Creel, Loop, French, Taylor, Pleasant, Smith (B. U.), Butz, Townsend and Overman. Among those who went by invitation were Professor W. A. Bell, Edward Fitzpatrick, (Counsellor-Journal) Superintendent of Public Instruction Holcombe, Professor Charlton. Besides these there were a number of ladies, many of whom were the wives and daughters of the Representatives and Senators. The train left this city at 7 o'clock a. m., and arrived in Terre Haute promptly at 10, where the visitors were received by Mayor Armstrong, Councilmen Kolsen, Weiner, Sack, Arnold and Potts, also G. I. Reed, Murray Briggs, B. C. Hobbs and Joseph Gilbert, members of the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School. These gentlemen led the way to the Ohio Hotel, where an elegant lunch had been set for the visitors, and to which they did ample justice. When the inner man had been satisfied the party stepped into carriages which were in waiting at the door and were driven to the State Normal School, one of the most imposing buildings in the city of Terre Haute. Visits were then made to the various rooms, where recitations were in progress, President Brown and his able assistants escorting the members of the committee and their friends through the building. All of the rooms were in a neat condition as well as the scholars, who were generally very bright looking children. Some of the little ones answered the most difficult questions readily, and all listened with marked attention to the instructions of their tutor. About 1 o'clock all of the older pupils—the coming teachers—were assembled in the chapel on the third floor, where they were addressed by members of the Legislature and Senate. Among those who made short and pleasant speeches to the young ladies and gentlemen were Senators Scholls, Foulke and Campbell, and Representatives McHenry, Loop, French, Taylor, Pleasant, Smith and Townsend. All of these gentlemen complimented the members of the committee on their gentlemanly and ladylike bearing, and each and every one agreed that it was necessary that the present General Assembly should make an appropriation for the Normal in order that various improvements may be made in the building and new books purchased for the institution. Each of the speakers urged upon the pupils the necessity of diligent study and strict attention to the instructions of their teachers, and all conceded that there was no danger of a State impoverishing itself by providing for its schools. At the conclusion of the speeches there was some very fine singing by the choir. The visitors were then driven to the Rose Polytechnic Institute, which was founded in 1874 by Channoy Rose, of Terre Haute, and which is devoted to the higher education of young men in engineering. It is a large and imposing structure in the northeastern part of the city, and the party was conducted through the main building and shops by the Superintendent, Mr. E. J. Ward S. Cobb, and his assistants. It was after 3 o'clock by the time the visitors had finished looking through the various departments and they at once adjourned to the Terre Haute House, where the banquet took place. It was an elegant spread, and reflects great credit upon the proprietor of the aforesaid hotel. When the appetites of all had been appeased Mayor Armstrong delivered a very neat and appropriate address welcoming the visitors to the city, to which Senator Willard responded, thanking the Mayor, the Council and the citizens of Terre Haute generally for the kind and cordial reception. It was now half-past 4 o'clock and the party proceeded at once to the depot, where the special was in waiting to bring the party to Indianapolis. A start was not made, however, until 5 o'clock, and good time was made between Terre Haute and this city, the train arriving here shortly before 7.

Everybody conceded that this was a most pleasant trip, and there is no doubt that the Committee on Education of both the Senate and House will recommend the passage of a bill appropriating money for the Normal School.

The Lyra Masquerade.

The annual masquerade of the Lyra Society will be held Thursday evening of next week. That this will be one of the social events of the season there can be no doubt. Invitations have been sent out to the members, and additional ladies' tickets can be procured of Bernard Vonnegut. Tickets for visiting strangers will cost $2. The polo will be at 9 o'clock and supper at 12.

This will be an occasion of rare enjoyment, as the Lyra Society is famous for the completeness of its social entertainments.

"THE ORANGE GIRL" AT THE GRAND.

The Ford Opera Company and Mrs. Zaida Seguin were again greeted with a surprisingly large audience last night at the Grand Opera House, and before the curtain went down on the first of the three acts of Planquette's latest and most tuneful opera, "The Orange Girl," they became enthusiastic. In each of the five characters Mrs. Seguin successfully essayed—"The Orange Girl," "The Gypsy," "The Cook"—her dressing and acting were charming, and her singing simply superb. After the quartet "Only an Orange Girl," in the first act, introducing the merry laugh, the sympathies of the audience were completely won. Here and elsewhere Mr. James G. Peake's delightful baritone and Mr. Thos. Christy's excellent tenor were highly appreciated and won several calls. Miss Lulu Evans was rather a revelation as "Lady Clara." She only had one prominent solo, "The Song of the Clock," and that she sang with a charm that surprised the audience and secured a hearty encore. The comedy which pervades the piece is broad, hilarious, irresistibly mirth-provoking—for what could be more absurd than the dance of the "Beadle" and the "Miser" in the forest of Arden—but it is not suggestive in any offensive particular. The music is light, pretty, well suited to the situation, and somewhat reminiscent of "The Chimes of Normandy," especially where the bells are introduced, but it is hard to remember. Mr. Denham as "Adam Squeak," the Beadle, is capital in opera buffa, and Mrs. Seguin's "Bridget" is as clever a bit of Irish brogue as ever delighted an audience at Harrigan & Hart's. What a wonderfully versatile and charming little woman Mrs. Seguin is! Mr. Webb Narcross made a typical miser, excellent in make-up, but with very little to musically. The remainder of the cast was acceptable, while the choruses and costumes were all that could be desired. As a whole, the performance was a most pleasing and satisfactory one. At the matinee this afternoon "The Orange Girl" will be given, and tonight the engagement closes with "The Orange Girl" (Three Black Cloaks) Buccolieri's latest and best opera.

KATE CLAXTON AT ENGLISH'S.

Last night, at English's Opera House, the popular actress, Kate Claxton, supported by Mr. Charles A. Stevenson and a good company, repeated her excellent performance of the beautiful romantic melodrama, "A Sea of Ice," to a largely increased and thoroughly delighted audience. The piece has been favorably commented upon in the columns of the Sentinel before, and only remains to reiterate what we have before said, and to commend everybody to go see it. The scenery alone is worth the price of admission, while the acting is excellent throughout. Matinee to day at 2 and final performance to night at 8.

THE TIME MUSEUM.

The boom of this popular resort continues, despite the strong counter attractions, and the people flock there by the thousands. The attendance, both Monday and last night, was extraordinarily large, and each audience was largely comprised of people who were never before seen in the Museum, among them doctors, lawyers, ministers and scientific men of high standing. A large proportion of these were drawn thither by the principal attraction in Curiosity Hall, viz., the famous "Passion Clock," about which so much had been said. It is, indeed, a most marvellous piece of mechanism, in every way superior to the once famous Strasburg clock. It illustrates automatically the birth, life and crucifixion of Christ; in fact, it is a sort of "Passion Play" in miniature. Each exhibition is accompanied by an explanatory lecture by Miss Myrtle King-land, a most graceful and entertaining talker. The other novelties are the white Moors, Burmese band from Siam, the fat girl, the Rice midgets, charming little people; the glass blowers, etc. The stage by the side of the auditorium is one of the best of the season, opening with Blake and Bartram, neat sketch artists, followed by Lemly, an excellent juggler; Kissell, the Zouave; Mayo and Southernland, favorite specialists; Orm Dixon, a clever ventriloquist, and Clarence and Sawtelle, one of the best sketch teams that has ever appeared here. This very strong show will be given all week, with matinees every afternoon. Don't fail to see it. Admission only ten cents.

THE ZOO THEATRE.

Large houses have greeted Harry Amiar in his drama of "Counterfeit," probably the strongest sensational play that has ever been presented on the Zoo stage. Mr. Amiar appears as "Pete," a negro who is always on hand to frustrate villainy. Mr. E. M. Crane, really a fine actor, plays the leading villain in fine style and carries the audience from first to last. Fred Felton plays the detective with his old-time vim, and Mrs. Felton looks nicely and plays charmingly. The roles of the cast are all deserving. The olio performance comprises several well-known artists and the show as a whole one of unusual excellence and worthy the patronage of the public.

NOTES.

Miss Frances Bishop in "Mugg's Landing," comes to English's the last three nights of this week. Sale of seats now in progress.

The Elks' benefit takes place at the Grand next Friday afternoon, and a magnificent bill has been arranged. Seats are selling rapidly at the box office.

At a quarter before 8 Monday night there wasn't a seat left in the Grand Opera House, and the unwelcome sign "standing room only" greeted all late comers.

Pierce L. Jarvis, representing Bartley Campbell's "White Slave" company, which is at the Grand the last half of next week, following Lotta, is in the city.

The advance sale of seats for the engagement of the popular and talented comedians, Harrison and Gourlay, at the Grand Opera House, the last three nights of this week, in their phenomenally successful farcical comedy, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," opened yesterday morning at the theater box-office, and promises to be large.

This from the Emmet Guards: "Our friends are requested to purchase tickets for the afternoon and evening performances at English's to day from some one of our committee. The Guards receive benefits on only the tickets we sell, and derive no benefit from tickets purchased at the theater box-office. Some of our committee will be on all streets approaching the theater."

The management of the Ford Opera company submits the following card:

"TO THE LADIES AND GENTLEMEN who were at the Grand Opera House on Monday night and who so patiently sat through the long wait, and by their applause seemed to appreciate the circumstances of the several changes in the cast, the sincere gratitude of Zaida Seguin-Watface and Messrs. Ford and Wallace is hereby expressed with the assurance that they will ever remember the generosity of the Indianapolis public."

Governor Gray and a party of friends witnessed the performance of "The Bohemian Girl" from Manager Dickson's private box, Monday night at the Grand, and expressed themselves highly delighted.

Y. M. C. A. Matters.

There was a general meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the Association rooms last night, and arrangements were made for the Moody convention. George W. Cobb, Secretary of the Railroad Christian Association, will give a Bible reading at the young men's meeting on Saturday next.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S INAUGURATION.

Low Rates to Washington and Return by Pennsylvania Lines.

In a recent interview with Mr. E. A. Ford, General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh, we learn that arrangements are being perfected by that road to render the trip unusually quick, safe and comfortable for all who may desire to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, March 4. The Pennsylvania Lines will run from their numerous termini in the West, solid trains of elegant coaches and Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars through to Washington without change, and as the Pennsylvania is the only system of lines under one ownership and management from points named below to Washington, to the thoughtful traveler its advantages become quickly and pleasantly apparent.

The following low rates—much less than have ever before been quoted for a like occasion—are announced by the Pennsylvania Lines, and first-class tickets to Washington and return will be on sale February 25 to March 3, inclusive, good for return leaving Washington not later than March 10.

By the Port Wayne and Pennsylvania Route, from Chicago $20; from Fort Wayne, $17; from Lima, $15; from Toledo, $13; from Erie, $14.50; from Mansfield, $14; from Cleveland, $13.

By the Vandalia and Pennsylvania Route, from St. Louis, $22; from Terre Haute, $19; from Vincennes, $19.

By the Pan-Handle and Pennsylvania Route, from Cincinnati, $15; from Louisville, $17.50; from Lexington, $18.50; from Indianapolis, $17; from Dayton, $15; from Columbus, $13.50; and from various other points at proportionately cheap figures.

Mr. Ford requests us to say that persons desiring further information can obtain it by addressing him at Pittsburgh, or through future announcements.

Advice to Mothers.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little mother knows as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
